Dedication

We, the 1962 Senior Class of Twin Rivers High School, respectfully dedicate this annual to our friend and teacher, Mr. David Spaulding, and our Parents who have given us influence and guidance throughout our high school years.

Foreword

Our thought, as we put the final touches to these pages, is that we have created a book of memories that will be cherished by you among your valued possessions. In this annual you will find a record of the past school year, the faces of friends, and the stories of activities in which you have participated, all of which present a varied and, we hope, an accurate view of the life in Twin Rivers High School. It is our hope that you will find enjoyment in this issue and in years to come, and that this book will remind you often of your happy school experiences.

SENIORS

MARY BRODALE

She may have blond hair,
but she is not lightheaded.

LAWRENCE SHARP

He thinks and thinks and thinks--sometimes.

SHARON LENERTZ

Cheerful, dependable, and an all around good sport.

TERRY LEE

Who saw him always wished to know him more.

MARY ANNE HOLT

Her brain contains ten thousand cells. In each some active knowledge dwells.

RONALD AURE

An answer to a maiden's prayer.

BARBARA TOMPKINS

Here's to the girl with the heart and smile; Who makes this bubble of life worth while.

PAUL PEDERSEN

He's neither a bookworm nor a social hound. But he's a darn good fellow to have around.

KAREN LONGSETH

Many are her friends, few are her foes, everyone likes her wherever she goes.

KENT SCHULZE

Tall, dark, and a trifle haughty--And a little too lazy to be even naughty.

PAT McGEE

It's nice to be natural,
when you're naturally nice.

DONALD FAITH

He stoops for nothing but the door.

RICHARD FULLERTON

Sober as a judge, but you can never tell.

PATTY GROMBACH

She's not a flower, she's not a pearl; but just a noble all around girl.

MARIE BECKER

Dainty and neat from head to feet.

DANIEL COLLINS

Is he quiet, or is it that you just don't know him.

GARY WACHTER

He's a quiet man, but quite a man we'll say.

HELEN RUTZ

She takes life as she finds it and she finds it good.

LESLIE ANN ZIMMEL

Why take life seriously?
You never get out alive anyway.

DENNIS DRUMMER

A hill climber, four wheels and no brakes.

CORINNE RIPPENTROP

We thought her quiet, but now we know her.

DAVID COLEMAN

I sleep in class, so
I can study at night.

IRENE ESHARDT

She puts all her cares in a box and sits on the lid and giggles.

JOHN WICKRE

He's small, but so is a stick of dynamite.

JUDY MARTIN

She's just a student working for her M.S. degree.

NEIL WEHRSPAIN

Look out! I'll do something sensational yst.

CHERYL FUMBIANN

In her friendship there is nothing insincere.

MARY ANN BEHNKENDORF

She says what she means,
and means what she says.

NICHOLAS CLARK

I never was a ladies' man,
I stay away from all I can.

GAYLE WILSON

A mighty hunter, and her prey is men.

CAROLYN MALMIN

She talks little but she does much.

RONALD NIELSEN

He has something on his mind, that will some day aid mankind.

CARIE MAE HAUG

Her heart is like the moon--it changes, and there's always a man in it.

RICHARD ZEMAN

Look out, girls!
Here's a dangerous man.

DONALD NIELSEN

Don't you know? Ask me--I'll tell you.

DOROTHY HAGEY

An air of good humor ever surrounds her.

CLASS WILL

- I, Ron Aure, will my Casanova ways to Bob Brown. They get me into trouble anyway.
- I, Marie Becker, will my short skirts to Jeanne Eisenbarth to help her impress the judges at speech contest.
- I, Mary Ann Behnkendorf, will my fondness for men to Ruth Fridolfson.
- I, Mary Brodale, will my dimpled cheeks and my smile to Mr. Weddingfeld in the hope that even if he can't use the dimples he'll at least break down and smile a little more often!
- I, Nick Clark, will my date book to Rich Olson, even though I know he'll only put one name in it.
- I, Dave Coleman, will my boundless energy, initiative, enthusiasm, and drive to Jim Oppedahl.
- I, Dan Collins, will my manly physique to Rich Welter so that he too will be able to pose for those "I was a 98 pound weakling" magazine ads.
- I, Irene Ehrhardt, will my tremendous vocabulary to Barb Heck.
- I, Don Faith, will my booming voice to Mr. Vige,-----"Watch out, study hall students!"
- I, Cheryl Fuhrmann, will my vocal music abilities to Jeanne Eisenbarth. Maybe the short skirts willed her by Marie plus this will help her impress both speech and music contest judges.
- I, Rich Fullerton, will all my nicknames to Norm Smith, as I go hopping down the bunny trail.
- I, Pat Gronbach, will my naturally wavy hair to Ralph Lurkens. It should save him hours of combing!

- I, Carie Mae Haug, will my argumentative ways to Kay Martin.
- I, Mary Anne Holt, will my ability to omit-"and a" from my vocabulary to Mr. Brock.
- I, Terry Lee, am not leaving anything, just a threat-----"Stay away from my girl!"
- I, Sharon Lenertz, will my band practice record, which brought me all those ones at contest, to Marlys Larson.
- I, Karen Longseth, will my position as editor of the school paper to anyone in next year's senior class who is looking for a lot of extra work to do.
- I, Carolyn Malmin, will my brother, Eddie, to Marcia Dale. She wants him, and how else can I get rid of him?
- I, Judy Martin, will my perfect attendance record to Bev Kampen. Wouldn't that be a switch!
- I, Pat McGee, will my ability in knowing how to use cosmetics to the Freshmen girls.
- I, Dorothy Nasty, will my freckles to Karla Erickson. Can you imagine Karla Erickson with more freckles?
- I, Don Nielsen, will my ability to remain calm and to keep my emotions under complete control at all times to Kaz Kosajda.
- I, Ron Nielsen, will my bookkeeping ability to next year's class. That should make things easier for them!
- I, Paul Pedersen, will my unused supply of Metrecal to Mrs. Anderson.
- I, Corinne Rippentrop, will my ability to present legitimate excuses for questionable absences to Susan Dahl.
- I, Helen Rutz, will my ability to stay true to one man to Barb Ehrhardt, although of all my abilities I'm sure that's the one in which she's the least interested.
- I, Kent Schulze, will my interest in girls to Howard Zeman. Wonder what he'll do with it?
- I, Larry Sharp, will my wavy hair to Mr. Leuthauser, if he'll take the time each night to pin it up.
- I, Barb Tompkins, will my "gift of gab" to Roberta Stoddard. Maybe if I give it away I'll be able to quit putting my foot in my mouth!
- I, Gary Waechter, will my track record to Don Madsen since I seriously doubt whether he's going to establish one of his own.
- I, Neil Wehrspann, will my "little" feet to Miss Graves,- - - don't trip!
- I, John Wickre, leave everything to Elmer. As you all know, I died.
- I, Gayle Wilson, will my cooperative attitude toward teachers to Sandy Selvig.
- I, Rich Zeman, will my long, curly eyelashes to all girls.
- I, Leslie Ann Zinnel, will my ability to decorate the locker room ceiling to anyone who desired artistic ability, and can pay for it.
- We, The Senior Class of 1962, will all our good times, memorable experiences, ability to stay out of trouble, and our artistic ability to the underclassmen of Twin Rivers.
