We, the senior class of 1963, do respectfully dedicate this year's TREASURE CHEST to our friend, teacher, and guidance counselor, Mr. Basil Brock. Through his counseling he has shown us that high school is only a small portion of our lives, but that it holds the key to the years which follow.

FOREWORD

The yearbook staff of this year's TREASURE CHEST wish, for all who read these pages, many moments filled with pleasant memories of the "school days of 1963." In putting these pages together, we have tried to gather on paper some of the eventful and not-so-eventful days at Twin Rivers High, so that you, the readers of this annual, may remember and cherish these days in the years to come.

"Though other nights and other days may find us gone our separate ways, we will have these moments to remember."

CLASS PROPHECY

This is your Washington correspondent, Robert Helland, reporting to you live from the gold room of the White House in Washington, D. C., the setting for this year's inaugural ball. This night, January 3, 1983, marks a most unusual occasion in the history of the United States. Only the members of the newly elected President's high school graduating class have been invited to this gala occasion. Crowds of spectators are gathered on the White House lawn to witness the arrival of the guests.

Now entering the room is the President, John Claus, and the First Lady, the former Ruth Usher. She is wearing a glittering, high fashion, floor length maternity gown, styled especially for her by the noted French designer, Jeri Hawkins, considered by many to be the foremost fashion authority in the world.

The guests are beginning to arrive now. A Model A Ford has just backfired at the front entrance. Two shabbily dressed people and 13 obstreperous, runny-nosed kids are climbing the steps. It looks like, - - I believe it's, - - yes, it is Richard Olson and Mrs. Olson, the former Bev Fiderlick. As I understand it Richard failed in Chiropractic and resorted to making corn liquor. As a sideline, Bev manufactures home made soap. Rushing to escort the children to the playroom is none other than Carol Emma, The White House Nurse. The chef, Jerry Newton, head of the kitchen at the Washington Hilton, is checking last minute preparations for the festive banquet. Upon receiving word of this event, Jerry offered his services free of charge.

Two men dressed in Naval uniforms have just entered. They are Wayne and Charlie Seagren, who, after 20 years of faithful service are still on K.P.

I have just been informed that a couple has arrived riding an elephant. It appears to be Merle Opheim, and his wife, the former Michele Palmer. They have recently returned from a safari in Africa, bringing the elephant back as a gift to the First Lady.

Walking up the driveway is Larry Frederiksen, a Fuller Brush Kit under his arm. He finally decided to put his walking to a profitable advantage.

Linn Rutz has just entered the room. She recently solved a case for Mrs. J. Moneybags Stewart, the former Mary Poertsch, who was robbed of $100,000 worth of valuable jewels.

It appears that about half the guests have arrived now, and as I look through the window I can see more arriving. A taxi cab has just come to a screeching halt. A very pale man, nervously shaking with fright, is slowly climbing out of the cab. It's Kenny Olson, now a wealthy mink farmer back in Ottosen, Iowa. Wait a minute! Instead of the cab pulling away, the driver is also getting out and proceeding up the walk. Well, if it isn't our champion ditch driver, Jane Olson. Judging by the looks of Kenny, she must still be the same old girl.

Norm Armstrong and Dianne Halsrud are now walking through the door. Apparently Norm has been extremely successful in the baby business. He is working on his second million already. From what I can see Dianne is showing off the $10,000 diamond ring Norm recently gave her. They are planning to get married now that Norm is well established as an obstetrician.

In the far corner are Dirk Holmes and Barbara Ehrhardt. They are most likely chuckling over their jobs. As you perhaps know, Dirk is the principal of Twin Rivers High School and he just loves to punish the kids! Barb has been teaching physical education at Harvard for the past 15 years and enjoys it very much.

Walking through the door are two lovely young looking women, Karen Skow and Geraldine Kropf. Everyone has probably heard of them as a result of their famous book on marital problems. As a classmate, I recall how particular they were with the boys they dated.

Well, I believe I'll journey over to the refreshments and chat with Eldred Holden a couple minutes before the entertainment begins. I read in the paper the other day that he opened another casino. This one is located in Bode City, Iowa.

The announcement has just been made that two of the president's former classmates won't be here tonight. Suzanne Oppedahl sent a telegram from Spain saying she regretted missing this occasion but Carlos Jr. has just arrived. Phyllis Griebach is probably enjoying herself even though they still haven't found a way of getting her off the planet Mars. The population ratio here is 20:1. Twenty boys to one girl, of course.

The last guest has just arrived and is greeted by the President himself. She is Kay Martin, now Governor of Iowa. She recently gained popularity with the high school students by signing a bill prohibiting excessive assignments in senior year English.

Now that all the guests have arrived, the entertainment will begin. First on the program is famous opera singer, Ruthie Fridolfson. She has recently completed a world tour. After much applause, Donald Faltinson is introduced and begins his act. Everyone is awed as he juggles 8 full champagne glasses at once. Don is presently employed by the Ringling Brothers Circus, where he not only juggles, but walks the tight rope at the same time. Last but certainly not least on the program is Miss Twinkle Toes, alias Kathleen Williams. And here she comes dressed in...dressed in...well, anyway, here she is.

I guess that is the entire Twin Rivers High School Class of '63". I hope you have all enjoyed this special telecast. Thank you and Good Night.

CLASS WILL

I, Norman Armstrong, will my manly physique to Nerland Jacobson so he can run along the beach kicking sand in the eyes of little guys with pretty girl friends.

I, John Claus, will my ability to get along well with people to Jim Morey.

I, Barb Ehrhardt, will my athletic awards to my sister, Monica. We'd just as well keep them in the family!

I, Steve Evenson, will my gabbiness to Walt "The Silent One" Harris. If we'd split the difference we might both come out ahead.

I, Don Faltinson, will my Casanova ways to Steve DeGroot. Better be on your toes, girls!

I, Bev Fiderlick, will my record of committing fouls in girls' basketball to Sandi Selvig. Records are made to be broken, and it looks to me as though she has the best chance of any of the current crop of undergraduates!

I, Mary Foertsch, will my quiet, unobtrusive nature to Judie Cran. She'll never be the same.

I, Ruth Fridolfson, will my ability to turn a forward roll in P.E. to Cathy Collins. Now she too will have to work at it!

I, Phyllis Gronbach, will my honey-licorice cough drops to a teacher who shall remain forever nameless, and the thought that he might accidentally choke on one of them is the farthest thing from my mind!

I, Dianne Halarud, will my diamond to Miss Yeager, although it'd probably just cramp her style out at Greeley (Colorado) next year.

I, Jerry Hawkins, just want to leave this thought with all the underclass boys. "Remember, I saw her first!"

I, Bob Helland, will my vocal music ability to Doug Clark. I was going to leave it to Jean Eisenbarth, but I thought she'd sound funny singing bass.

I, Eldred Holden, will my excellent driving habits to Roger Thompson, which, when you stop to think about it sort of sounds like the blind leading the blind, doesn't it?!

I, Dirk Holmes, will my running ability to Ray Welter. With my speed and his intestinal fortitude, records should fall. Also, perhaps this additional bit of speed will enable him to stay out of reach of pursuing female-type people!

I, Carol Kamna, will my cheerful smile and friendly attitude to Marlys Kinne. Smile, Marlys your face won't crack!

I, Geraldine Kropf, will my love of working in a restaurant to anyone wishing to take lessons in how to deal with people and still be able to grin and bear it!

I, Kay Martin, will my ability to ask intellectual questions in chemistry class to Marlys Larson. I was going to give this big head start to Karla Erickson 'til she decided not to take the course!

I, Jerry Newton, will my position on the annual staff to anyone with enough lack of foresight to be willing to accept it.

I, Jane (sometimes known as "Three Speed") Olson, will my sweet disposition and my complete lack of argumentativeness to Melody Hansen. You know what a sour-puss she is! And to all my tormentors I just want to say, "Don't rush me!!!"

I, Ken Olson, will all my girl friends to Gary Cran. Can you imagine anything more ridiculous than that? Melody'll never let him keep 'em!

I, Rich Olson, will my wise-cracks and my artistic ability as a sign painter to Jerry Jensen although he needs both like he needs an extra hole in the head!

I, Merle Opheim, will my height to John Berton. With a gift like this, John, don't give up. There's still hope!

I, Suzanne Oppedahl, will my ability to blush at the slightest provocation to Roz Pederson. It won't help to keep her out of trouble but it'll make her look more contrite when she gets caught.

I, Michele Palmer, will my marching ability to Elizabeth Wickre. Remember, Liz, your left foot goes down on the first beat of each measure! After that there's only one other foot to remember to move.

I, Linn Rutz, will my typing ability to Phil, otherwise known as "Thumbs", Sinclair.

I, Charles Seagren, will my ability to confuse the English Language into almost unrecognizable form to Miss Sedivy so she'll be better able to understand the problems I've had all these years.

I, Wayne Seagren, will my deep voice to Dave Graaf. Along with his own, I figure this ought to give him a singing range of about four octaves!

I, Karen Skow, will my main interest, namely dancing, to Mr. Nasby. With a legacy such as this, it won't be long before people will be calling him "Twinkletoes".

I, Ruth Usher, will my athletic ability to Kris Erdman. With a handicap like that she'll be lucky to average one field goal per ball game next year!

I, Kathy Williams, will my long arms to next year's girls' basketball team. Here's hoping they make it to the State Tournament again. Can you imagine my arms on Rita Nielsen? She could stand up and tie her shoes without bending over!

We, the 1963 Senior Class of Twin Rivers High School, will all our memorable school experiences, our extra-curricular record, our talents, and our trials and tribulations to those who follow in our exalted footsteps.
