PIRATE LOG

199

WE, THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1971, WITH GREATEST ESTEEM AND RESPECT, DEDICATE THIS, THE "PIRATE LOG", TO OUR FRIENDS AND CLASS SPONSERS-MR. AND MRS. DON DRAKE. THROUGH THEIR GUIDANCE AND LEADERSHIP WE HAVE BEEN ABLE TO ACCOMPLISH MOUNTAINOUS TASKS AND FIND OUR ULTIMATE GOALS. WE ALSO DEDICATE THIS BOOK TO OUR PARENTS WHOSE CONTRIBUTIONS AND FIRM GUIDANCE WILL BE WITH US FOREVER.

FOREWORD

THE ANNUAL STAFF OF TWIN RIVERS PRESENT TO YOU A LOOK AT THE MANY EPISODES OF OUR SENIOR YEAR, SUCH AS SPORTS EVENTS, TESTS, HOMECOMING, MUSIC EVENTS, PROM, CLASS PLAYS, DANCES, AND ASSOCIATIONS WITH OUR FRIENDS. EACH OF THESE MEMORIES ARE IMPORTANT BECAUSE THEY MARK THE BEGINNING OF OUR FUTURES. WE HOPE IT WILL BRING MANY HOURS OF ENJOYMENT AND STIR MANY PLEASANT MEMORIES. WE PRESENT IT TO YOU AS A TOKEN OF OUR FINAL SCHOOL DAYS.

In Memoriam

In Memory of Mrs. Donalds

While you are gone
We'll sing our song
And tell you how it is
Between the world and life beyond
How great this life is!

Today this poem is dedicated
To one we all adored and loved
A teacher, friend, advisor, too.
She now lies above.

We remember all the times we spent
Two years together as a class
Then we went on... never forgetting
When we were together at last.

Our deepest sympathies remain with you
For a woman so great as she
But she's in the hands of a mighty soul
Our God so great as He.

So peace be with you and our memories, too.
Our humble class will remain
A faithful reminder of person we loved
And will always admire the same.

On July 22, 1970 in Somers, Iowa, the Twin Rivers Pirates matched ability with Pston-Churdan, and proved to be the better team. Thus, advancing to the state tourney, to be held in Fort Dodge. At State, T.R. won the first game, 7-3 against Winfield-Mt. Union. In the semi-finals, against Rembrandt, T.R. lost 3-2 in an extra inning contest. T.R. again lost the consolation game 5-0 against South Hamilton of Jewell.

Overall we had a very successful season with a record of Wins 22 Losses 4.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the graduating class of 1971, do hereby will our most prized possessions and belongings to those we feel deserve them most.

I, Marcia Becker, will to Linda Rippentrop the ability to open those stupid P. E. lockers. Those combinations are really tricky.

I, Steve Berte, will my inhaling ability to Captain Jack. There's another nail in your coffin!

I, Kathy Bratland, will my chair in band to anyone who wants it. There's one advantage to sitting in the back of the room. At least you can see what's going on outside.

I, Suz Christensen, will my chest back to my dad!

I, "Tee" Colwell, being of sound mind and upset stomach, will my entire collection of H. R. Gross campaign buttons to Mr. Pierick and my Berl Priebe dart board to Minnie.

I, Terry Demory, will my ability to skip school to Dick Collins.

I, Denny DeBoom, will my abyness in class to Bruce Bakken. Yelling at the teachers doesn't get you anywhere. Believe me!

I, Tom Eisenbarth, will my overpowering voice to Mrs. Bratland. Maybe next year in syudy hall they'll listen!

I, Kathy Frederick, will to anyone the ability to help my friends with their problems and to council them. Somebody's got to do it.

I, Chuck Frideres, will my spot on the basketball bench to Ron Hohenberger.....although he's already got one. Don't forget your pillow!

I, Gary Graaf, will all my pencils to Mr. DeBoom to grind up in his electric pencil sharpener.

I, Brent Hanson, will my spot on the bench and the book "Ten Easy Ways To Have Fun On The Bench Without Really Trying" to Jim Terwillger.

I, Jim Hanson, will my ability to use a right-handed bat to Mr. Pierick and the Twin Rivers team, so now you can win the conference for the third year in a row!

I, Kenny Hauck, will my ability in shop to Mr. Wolf.

I, Carol Holthaus, will my Bookkeeping ability to Rip. I hope she has as much fun as I did.

I, Mary Hoaford, will to some lucky Chemistry student next year, my front row seat closest to the veranda door and these suggestions: your experiments are much more affective if you double all ingredients and heat.

I, "Jell" Jenson, will my ability to write English term papers on an intimate subject to Kevin Garth Vige. With my brains and his own knowledge gained from experiences he'll surely get an "A".

I, Iris Johnson, will my great running ability to Debi Rossing. I hope it helps her more than it did me.

I, Judy Johnson, will my Phys. Ed. uniform to Mr. DeBoom. Hope it fits you better than it did me.

I, Matti Julin, will my side burns to Mr. Pierick. Now you too can have hairy cheeks.

I, Luke Kellner, will my wrestling ability to Gary Rosensau. Maybe someday you'll beat Gary Graaf.

I, Gary Kinseth, will my basketball ability to Bruce Roethler.

I, Vicki Lempke, will my ability to eat to Mr. Varville. Beings you look so much like the Hamm's Beer Bear, you might as well eat like one!

I, Minnie Mackintosh, will my Berl Priebe driving ability to Vickie King. Look out world!

I, Kris Mathiason, will to Chicken my one-eyed Boatmobile. Now you too can be the proud owner of a 1949- Special-DeLux-Plymoth.

I, Muff Mogler, will my ability to cut uo in 7th hour syudy hall to Ron Hohenberger. You'll need it!

I, Cathy Nelson, will all my busy weekends snd booked up Saturday nights to Marcia Halarud...on the grounds that you can stand the stress and strain of being home every night by eight o'clock.

I, Debi Olson, will my great cooking ability to Theda Salmon. I sure hope you like T.V. dinners, Chris!

I, Marilyn Olson, will my most prized possession...my bright yellow "55" Chevy pickup to any underclassmen girl that likes to be noticed. For some reason it seems to draw slot of attention!

I, Deb Pentico, will my one-man approach to Pam Curry. If at first you don't succeed.....try, try, again!

I, Cindy Raney, will my candy bars, yoyo, squirt gun, super ball, and clackers to Mr. Pierick. Now you won't have to frisk the kids and check the lockers for a collection of your own!

I, Jamie Rhodes, will my ability to stay calm and cool in the time of crisis to Annette Ehrhardt.

I, Marlys Rossing, will my love for red-formfitting P.E. uniforms to Mr. Drake. How would you like to be called a fire engine?

I, Theda Salmon, will my half of Marcia and my P. E. locker to Linda Rippentrop. Also the uniforms in there. Take your pick, Rip!!!

I, Eileen Satern, will my Bookkeeping ability to anyone! They say you have to give everything a try!

I, Ray Scott, the silent majority, will my quietness and shyness to Muff.

I, Kris Struthers, will my authentic, true to life, road signs to Sande Construction Company. Iv'e used them to their fullest, besides, maybe they'd like them back!!!!!!!

I, Gary Telford, will my lips to Ann Selvig. With the practice they've had you'll really be able to "pucker-up"....to your tuba at least!

I, Jody Terwilliger, will my great flute-playing ability to Janna Brook. Being last chair for three years in a row was quite a challenge and lots of hard work. But if you put your mind to it you'll be able to hold a record just as good as mine. Good luck!

I, Randy Thompson, will my attitudes and opinions in World History and other matters to Mr. Pierick so that maybe he can see my side of an argument!

I, Linda Thul, will my Bookkeeping ability to Mr. Bucher. I hope you're more confused now than you ever were!

I, Dallas Tofteberg, will my abilities in weekend extra circular activities to Dick Collins. Touchdown!

I, Jacki Wonderly, will my Mark Eden developing kit to next years seniors. Somebody's got to keep up with the freshmen!

I, Jean Zeman, will my self-defense tactics to any underclassman boy to ward off any aggressive girl at T.R.

PROPHECY

Once upon a time in the Kingdom of BLO (Bode, Livermore and Ottosen) there lived an ugly frog. Not only was he ugly but he was educated. He'd just graduated from Wartburg and was coming home to find a woman. The first place he came to was Mary Hosford's horse and piano shop. The pianos weren't selling too well cause Mary was always getting them "tuned". Frog said "nay" and off he went. Next he noticed Minnie pearl's brother's livery stable and what would a stable be without a Thul like Linda. He tried to make a few passes at her but she kept "shooing" him away. He found a pretty forest and as he walked through he looked up in a tree and there sat Kenny Hauck and his wife Kitty. Since they couldn't fly themselves they're going to build an airplane. He got out of there right away. By this time he was getting a little hungry so he stopped off at Minnie Pearl's where Gary G. was working. He said he used to work at Kentucky Fried Chicken but Minnie's had bigger gizzards. After that big meal he was ready to cut a few z's at Rossing's Roost ( as in Marlys). The head rooster, Dallas Tofteburg, was running around acting cocky as usual. After a few hours of sleep he was off down the road. He was really getting tired of walking when a giant neon grease rag caught his eye that read "DeBoom's DX and GTO Dealer". He wanted to talk to Denny but he was upon a hoist so he had asked one of the attendants to lower de-boom. He sent him out to the lot and who was the salesman but that fast talker himself, Luke Kellner. For demonstrations he put a saddle on the car that did horse tricks. Frog picked out a pretty green one and zoomed off down the road. All of a sudden he noticed a little stand beside the road. It was Muff and Kinsey selling L.S.D. to the little neighborhood kids. He passed them by. As he pulled up to a stop sign right beside him sat what looked like a tough motorcycle gang. He read the back of their leather jackets and it said "tough motorcycle gang. To Frog's delight it turned out to be an all girl hang and who was the leader but none other than the one with the big cigar and muscle shirt, Jackie Wonderly. Sitting behind her are Kathie F. known as Godzilla around the cycle circle and Jean Zeman alias, beep-beep rowwww. Frog gives all of them a sexy smile but they didn't seem to like his "choppers." They zoomed off leaving our hero in a cloud of dust. He thought to himself maybe I'm just not with it. What's wrong? Dandruff? Bad breath?

I have both of these what more can a girl ask for? He thought maybe if he went to the dance in Dakota City he'd meet some willing young maiden. The first girl he spotted had long red hair and was cuttin' loose with Leonard up front. He had to have her. He grabbed her, looked into her eyes and said, "come away with me, you fool." She said to herself "I must use cunning on this ham." She started running out the door and down the street but she left her glass moccasin at the door. Now he must find her. He was racing after about 70 per and a police car comes along side Frog and the two officers tell him to pull over. An officer Demory asks him where the fire is officer Berte writes out the ticket. Frog tells them where the fire is and off they go but he's lost Miss Haney. After all that running he's pretty tired out. He says to himself "I'm out of shape. I've gotta find a gym and work out. He sees a sign that says Hanson's Jim. He walked in the door and there was Vicki Lempke shadow boxing. Frog whipped on the trunks and thought he'd impress her with his shadow wrestling. He got pinned. Dejectedly he hits the showers. Probably cause he busted his glasses. He stands in front of the mirror and said maybe it's my physique. The shop right next to the gym was Christensen's Body Shop. The motto was "Build Up or Bust." He steps inside where he meets two of the instructors Kris S. and Kris M. Business was slow till they borrowed a few signs for the front. They gave him a good workout and by the time they got done with him he was a specimen of health. He thought now the best place for him was in the movies. He headed quickly for MGM studios as in Miriam Grace Mackintosh to talk to the President. But all she ever said was habsha did I startle you? He gave up on her after awhile and just wandered around the studio. The first show he came to was Bewitcher starring Brent Hanson and Kathy Bratland. The only line he heard was "oh, Darin, you better go, right awy." That wasn't his type so he moved on to the next scene starring Jamie Rhodes in "Father Knowles Best." None of the movie world impressed him so he headed off again. There on the sidewalk was Randy Thompson and Marilyn Olson selling Kool-aid to wash down the L.S.D. Muff and Kinsey were selling. They were so drunk most the time that they'd forget to add the water but Randy would just say "Good Heavens." hic. Frog passed them by quickly his hair flapping in the breeze and figuring he needed a trim. He spotted Jell Jenson's barber shop and after a nice little trim got a manicure from Mr. DeBoom. Feeling cooler than he ever felt before he walked down the busy street noticing two good-looking girls coming his way. He said, "Hey women, what's your names?" They answered "Marcia and Theda." Frog said, "Well, I mean like what's happenin'?" The blonde one said, "You mean beside the war in Vietnam?" "No, babe" he said, "like why don't you come to my pad and do some jivin' with the Frog. Theda said "I'm afraid that would make ChrisCross." Frog banged his head on a brick wall and walked off. Maybe I'm just not hippie enough. He noticed a sign that read Chuck's leather and rabbit goods shop. Chuck analyzed Frog's problem right away and set him up with a leather head band, rabbit vest, rabbit shoes, and rabbit gloves. He got snot at six times. Since he'd always been a sports fan he headed off to the football game. He sat up by the press box and who was calling the play by play but Ray Scoot. Ray told Frog that number 75 was Zorro Eisenbarth playing across from Dick Butkus. Or should we say playing under Dick Butkus. This excited Frog to no end and out of his seat he went. There beside him sat a giant St. Bernard with long blonde hair. She introduced herself as Cathy Nelson and told him she was the victim of a freak chemistry experiment and was doomed to fire hydrants and hub caps. Frog sympathized but didn't believe in mixed breeding. After an exciting game he thought he'd best find a place to stay. He noticed Terwilliger's tent and awning and stopped in to talk to Jody about buying a tent but she said it was just a dress shop for the Moby Dick's of the female world. "I'd be better off to stay in a motel." he thought. Standing on the corner was a young man who looked like he knew the city. Frog asked him, "Could you tell me a good place to stay?" "Well, Rick Freeburg usually stays at Satern's Sanctuary owned by Eileen." Of course the one talking was Gary Telford. He checked in for the night and went to the motel bar for a snort. He ordered a Tom Collins from Eileen and she brought him a Bob. He wanted a little entertainment with his booze so he went next door to the "hungry Eye" and watched Iris Johnson go-go. He ended up sitting next to one of her old college teachers that said Iris was his best pupil but she thought her place was in the Eye. He truned in for the night running out of money and still no woman. At 8:00 the next morning came a knock on the door. It was Judy Johnson selling Baby Powder. Her salespitch was They have rashes on their butt they are nice. Frog slammed the door in her face and went back to bed. He got up at 11:00 and thought he go for a tour of the capitol. Luckily he arrived just as they announced the President was giving a speech on the front steps. A voice came out loud and clear, Ladies and Gentlemen the President of the United States Tee Colwell. Following close behind was the Vice-President Berl Priebe and Mayor Lindly and the former Deb Pentico. Also in the bunch was the presidents personal secretary Debi Olson. Frog walked right up and proposed to Miss Olson.
