TWIN RIVERS COMMUNITY SCHOOL
BODE, LIVERMORE, AND OTTOSEN

Class of ... 92

We, the Class of 1992, dedicate this yearbook to those who have contributed to our many achievements, both in and out of the classroom. We thank the faculty for preparing our minds for the future and our parents for their guidance through the years. Last, but certainly not least, we thank our many kind and generous friends who helped make life at Twin Rivers more enjoyable and definitely unforgettable.

In March, Twin Rivers hosted an HIV and AIDS Prevention Program called "SECRETS". It was performed by Drake University Graduate Drama Students in correlation with the Department of Education's Human Growth and Development Committee.

Using a diverse cast of characters and original music, SECRETS provided positive role models for teenagers who are faced with the pressures of becoming sexually active in the age of AIDS.

DRILL TEAM

Twin Rivers Drill Team began the 1991-1992 season with 12 performing members and 2 managers. They had a busy, but fun-filled year.

In July, Jamie Nielson and Sara Collins attended PCA Superstar Camp in Ames. Jessie Berte, Lisa Smith, and Nicky Jacobson attended Danica America Camp at Drake where they won the grand champion trophy.

In August, the Drill Team went to Adventureland Park for a summer get together. They were guests of Bill and Betty Borland. The next day they attended Marching Auxiliaries Camp at Monroe High School.

In October, the Twin Rivers Drill Team combined with the Pocahontas Drill Team to co-host a Clinic/Competition.

State Competition was held in Cedar Rapids on December 7, where they entered three divisions — small School Pom, Small School Prop, and Small School Lights. The TR girls not only received a Division I rating in all three divisions, but also brought home a first place trophy in Small School Lights. They also received the Distinguished Academic Achievement Award again for a team grade point average of 3.36.

On January 3, the Twin Rivers girls traveled to Madison, South Dakota, where they performed at a college basketball tournament at Dakota State University. Bud and Ruth Casper were responsible for the invitation to perform.

In February, an invitation from the Girls Athletic Union was received to perform at the Girls State Basketball Tournaments at Vets Auditorium in Des Moines on Monday, March 9.

A very successful season concluded with 2 Drill Team Nights held April 3 & 4.

Lead-in Couple: Dean Weydert and Jessie Berte.

Tonight a curtain closes.
 And we take a final bow
 To the four years we have spent
 Which are slowly ending
 now.
 But let time stop this evening,
 For just an hour or two

As we recall the memories
 That seem, right now, too few.
 And gathered all together,
 We will not say "goodbye."
 For thoughts that will prevail
 With us, of you, will never die.

A special thanks goes out to Mrs. Barb Bratland and Mr. David Spaulding. They will be retiring this year after 28 and 20 years of service at Twin Rivers. They will be greatly missed.

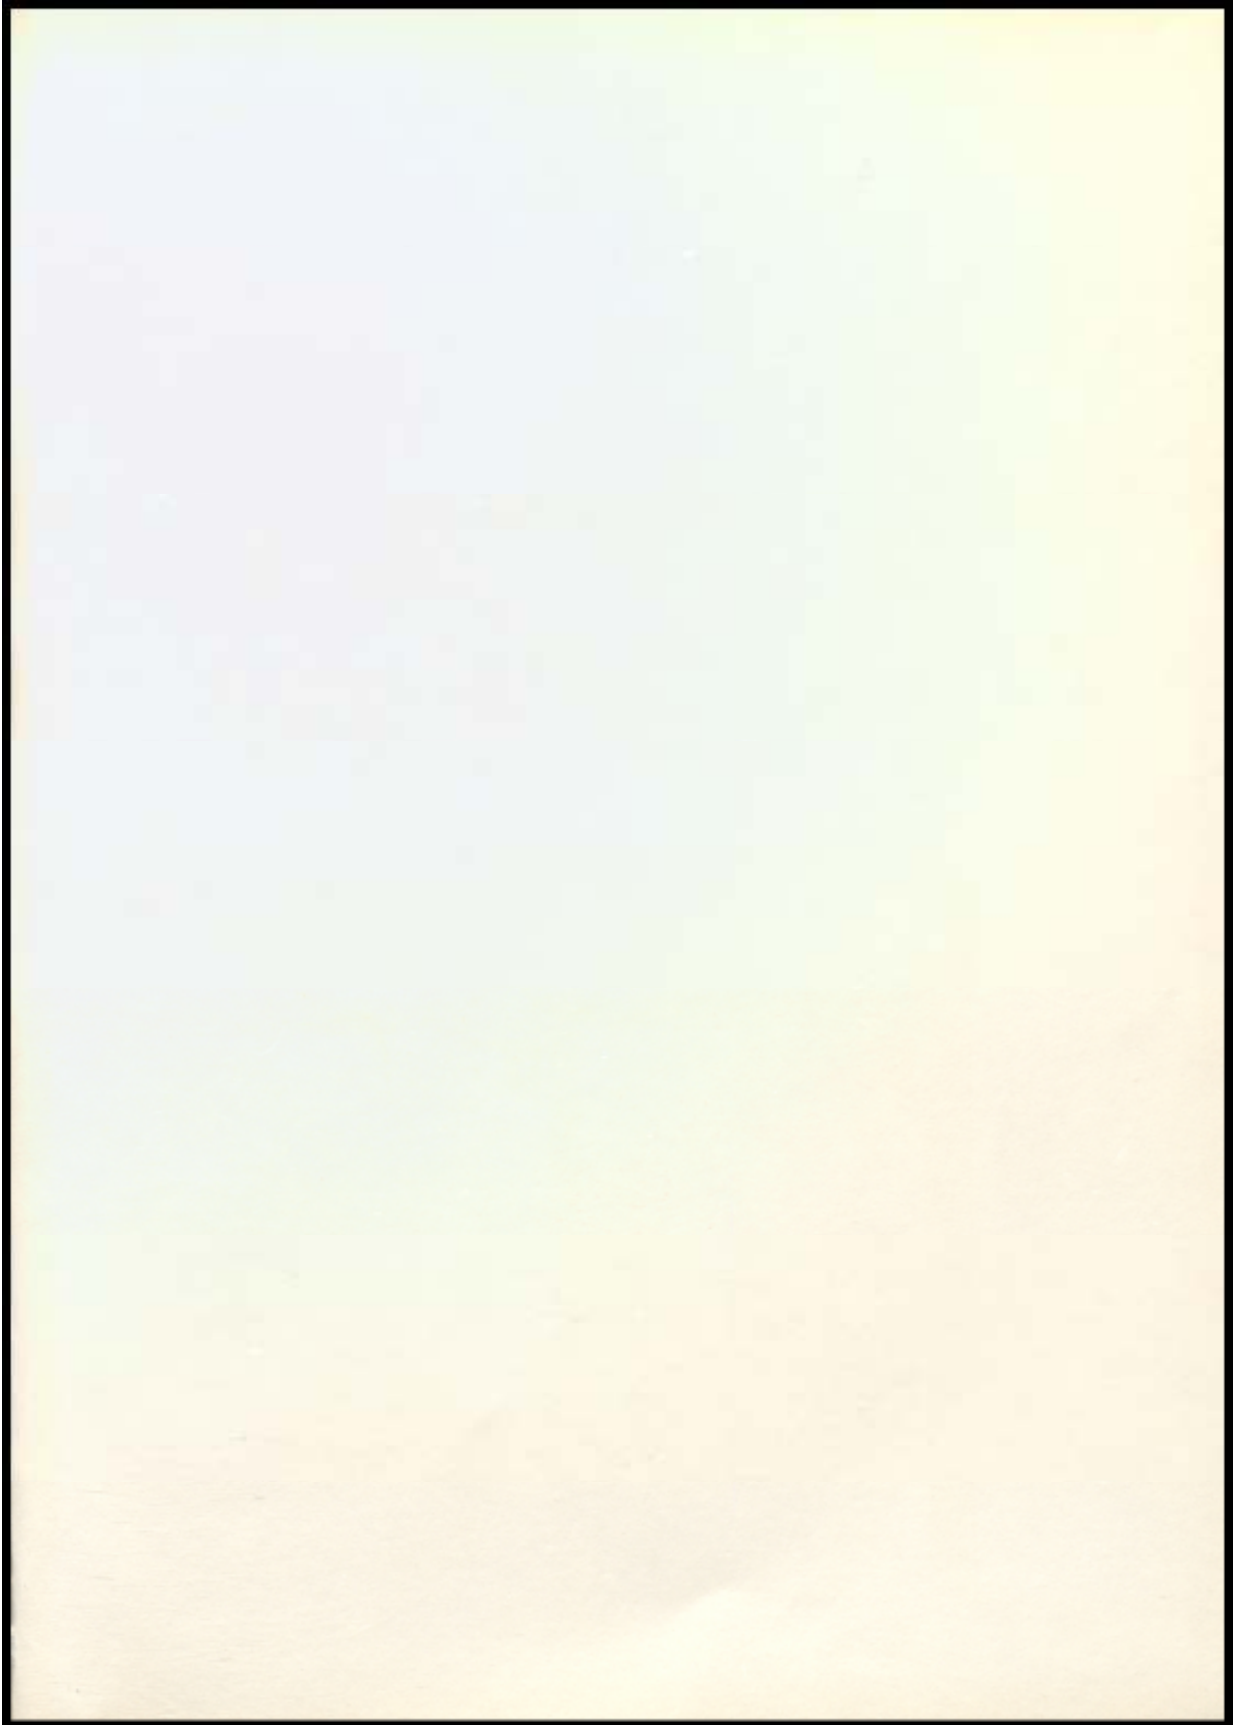

GOODBYE

We do not fear the future
for we are the future.
For what we have achieved,
for what we will achieve. . .
