HOMECOMING WEEK . . .

Homecoming week was filled with exciting activities. Throughout the week the cheerleaders planned dress up days and noon activities.

We came to school on Monday wearing our pajamas for pajama day, Tuesday was beach or hunting/fishing day, opposite sex day was on Wednesday. Thursday was twin day, while on Friday we wore black and blue to show our school spirit.

The week ended with a fun day on Friday. There were many games for all to participate in and try to score points for their grade. When the points were tallied the seniors came out on top.

MASS COMMUNICATIONS

This year, the Mass Communications class wrote and produced nine issues of "The Thunder Headlines," which appeared monthly in the Humboldt Independent.

"This year's "Thunder Headlines" has a strong staff composed of four seniors, two of which were on the staff last year," said Mrs. Hood, advisor. "They work hard and try to come up with interesting content ideas," she added.

DESKTOP PUBLICATIONS

The Desktop Publishing class received a new advisor, Mrs. France. The past advisor, Mrs. Bollmeyer, now coordinates the school to work program.

"It was a little daunting to come in after Mrs. Bollmeyer because she has done such a great job with the yearbook in the past," said France.

The Desktop students continued to use the Pagemaker program, as well as Portfolio graphics and Gallery page templates. "This year was a learning experience for all of us. We've all worked hard to continue the tradition of having an extraordinary yearbook," added France.

First Row: Lead-in Rachel Smith, Ushers Mindy Almond, Wendy Steil, Adriane Collins. Second Row: Lead-in Nick Frederiken, Ushers Jon Myer, Erik Halsrud, and Beau Jergens.

On Wednesday, May 8, 1996, 31 seniors and their parents gathered at the Bode Lutheran Church for the annual Senior Breakfast. Mr. Hasenkamp gave the opening speech and Pastor Mark Youngquist lead the group in a prayer. As part of the program, Mrs. Dwire and Mrs. Mattes read a poem to the class and parents Kathy Telford, Roxanne Garrett, and Jan Newton showed a video of each student's bedroom to illustrate how each of us is unique in some way.

A week later on Sunday, May 19, 1996, at 2:30 p.m., the same 31 seniors participated in the commencement ceremony. Seniors Eric Rolland and Jacob Jacobson delivered speeches, while music was provided by Christine Graaf and Amanda Williams. Mr. Crumbaugh, superintendent, announced the awards received by class members including Jamie Berte as valedictorian and Eric Rolland as salutatorian.

Good luck to the Class of 1996, and remember, we walked the way together, hand in hand with a friend!

AN EXTRAVAGANT PERFORMANCE

On November 10, 1995, the Twin River Valley vocal department performed "Ducktales and Bobby Sox." The musical takes place in the 1950's in the Victor Malt Shop.

It is homecoming week and everyone in the town is ready for the big game. All is well until the star football player, Alex Fenton, is missing. He was kidnapped by the Yellow Jacket street gang.

The town is surprised by a visit from the famous Curtis Jackson, Elvis Presly, and Buddy Holly. They help the town celebrate after Grant High's victory against their rival, Hartville, in the homecoming game.

The main characters of "Ducktales and Bobby Sox" were Rob Dickey as Alex Fenton, Sabrina Frederiksen as Laura Carter, Jon Myer as Curtis Jackson, and Curt Koob as "Wheels." Mrs. Howie, vocal instructor, directed the musical.

EXPRESSING YOUR THOUGHTS

EXPLORING THE 60'S

"We tuned in, turned on and expanded the universe of our minds," stated Mr. Kromminga. On the days of March 19, 20, and 21, the students at TRV learned about the history of the 1960's.

The teachers decided to add this unit to the curriculum for a change of pace when the year got 'draggy'. "The big goal was for all the faculty members to work together," explained Mrs. Hanson, who helped organize the event along with Mrs. Gruber, Mr. Kromminga and Mrs. Bowman.

For most students it was a great time to learn about the time that their parents grew up in. Mrs. Gruber added 'It was a funky learning experience.' Students studied everything from the Vietnam War and John F. Kennedy to popular dances and cars.

"Do you dig it, man?"

EXPEDITION IN MEXICO

On Wednesday morning, April 3, eleven students boarded the bus to start their expedition to Mexico. They flew out of the Des Moines airport and headed towards Mexico City.

When they arrived in Mexico City, the travelers checked into their rooms at the Hotel Grande Mexicana. After supper, they went on a walking tour, then it was off to the square to bargain with local merchants.

On the morning of Thursday, April 4, the group started their day by eating at Vipps Restaurant. From there, they went to Chapultepec Park and visited Maximilian's Castle. They ate dinner at the Hard Rock Cafe in Mexico City, then went to the San Juan Market where the group bought more than 20 blankets.

Friday morning, it was time to see the famous shrine of the Virgin of Guadalupe. After they had visited a church near the shrine, they headed to the Aztec Pyramids located an hour from Mexico City.

Saturday, April 6, was another long day of travel. The students stopped in Cuernavaca, where they once again shopped for bargains. Once they reached Taxco, they purchased silver rings, necklaces and bracelets.

On Sunday, the group attended the Easter Sunday Mass at the Santa Prisca Church in Taxco. They rode in "slug bug" taxis and had a free day to shop or stay in their hotel.

On Monday, April 8, they were back on the bus headed to Acapulco where they had the rest of Monday and Tuesday to do whatever they wanted. Students parasailed, sunbathed and swam in the ocean. Some of the girls had their hair braided while lying on the beach and almost all of travelers came back with sunburn.

On the morning of Wednesday, April 10, their vacation ended and they headed back to the cold Iowa weather.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Six new members of the National Honor Society were inducted on Honors Night, which was held Wednesday, May 15. They joined the seven members already participating, including Rachel Smith, Adriane Collins, Jamie Berte, Amy Myer, Jackie Ripperger, Eric Rolland and Jake Jacobson.

The National Honor Society's main goal of the 1995-1996 school year was to make a difference in our school. They successfully created a program to promote recycling. Each week, the members collected recyclable paper from each room of the school and delivered it to a recycling center.

The advisor for National Honor Society was Mrs. Bowman. This was her first year serving in that capacity.

We Begin, We Finish

The Door Has Opened At Last,
We Enter.....
Most Of Us Eagerly,
Others Regretfully,
The Silent Halls Are Made Noisy
With Our Words.
The Empty Desks Are Filled
With Our Thoughts,
Our Words And Our Laughter.
The Short Interrupted Flights
Of Paper Airplanes
And The Consolation Of Chewing Gum
Measure Many Monotonous Hours.
Sterile Boredom, Hopeful Speculation
On Tonight's Game
And Spring Fever's Symptoms
Are In Our Minds. . . Forever.
And When It Is Over,
It Is Forever Ended
We Will Have Been Released From
The Shackles Of Another's Will
Into The Frightening Freedom Of Responsibility.
We Must Take Our Lives
Into Our Own Hands
And Make Of Them What We Will.
