Homecoming '97

Homecoming week kicked off October 5, 1997 with scary hairdos filling the hallways. Tuesday was blast from the past and cowboy day. Wednesday brought out camoflauge and beach wear. Everyone forgot to get dressed on Thursday as they showed up in their pajamas. On Friday, several students showed their school spirit by wearing blue and black.

The cheerleaders planned noon activities for each day of the week. Friday was a full day of fun, ending with a community pep rally. After the points were tallied, the juniors came out on top.

John Borland and Laura Edwards were crowned 1997 Homecoming King and Queen Thursday night at Coronation.

On Friday, October 9, the Thunder football team achieved their second victory in a row against CWL, 22-21.

1997 Homecoming Court: Angie Hefty, Queen Laura Edwards, Kara Dickey, Carmen Shaffer, Ryan Fredin, King John Borland, Dallas Clark, Chris Johnson.

Desktop Publishing

First Row: Rachel Myers, Jessie Scott, Laura Edwards. Second Row: Ryan Cirks, Dale Weydert, Amy Mogler, Mrs. France, Karen Eisenbarth.

The Desktop Publishing class worked vigorously throughout the year to document the many activities and organizations of TRV. However, this seemed to be more of a challenge this year because the staff only consisted of eight members.

The staff produced the monthly newspaper page called the Thunder Headlines. The paper included Survey Says, Calendar of Events, Birthdays, the horoscope, and Senior Spotlights, as well as various news and feature articles.

The yearbook theme was "Eye of the Storm." The yearbook was edited by Amy Mogler and Karen Eisenbarth. This unique spectacle of photos and captions provided a tribute to our school and students in 1997 and 1998.

"This group is very dedicated. They worked hard during the year to improve the welfare of the school and restored the Student Council Scholarship," noted Mr. Kromminga, the group's advisor.

In October, the 12 members of the group hosted the Homecoming coronation, the dance after the game, and Friday's events.

In the chilly month of December, the Student Council sponsored a food drive to help stock the shelves of the Humboldt County Food Pantry.

As the famous saying goes, "The only place success comes before work is in the dictionary." These students worked hard to make 1997-1998 a fulfilling and successful year.

A Helping Hand

The Peer Helping class is blooming as it enters the second year of existence. Mrs. Bowman is the leader of this growing program.

The first semester of this program consists of peer practicum. The peer helpers learn about how to understand themselves to be able to help others. The second semester of the program is spent going to the Livermore or Gilmore City elementary school.

The group also went to Ames on a field trip to hear guest speakers and listen to other peer helping students. This gave the students a chance to learn how other students deal with their problems.

Dedicated Speakers

Isaiah Jacobson, All-State speaker

First Row: Jill Newton, Brenda Dahl, Kim Dunbar, Dan Wallace, Mrs. Hood. Second Row: Mrs. Dwire, Sarah Graaf, Kristen Koob, Jeana Wiese, Katy Abens, Mandi Schmidt. Third Row: Dale Weydert, Isaiah Jacobson, Justin Collins, Amy Mogler, Georgia Clem, Karen Eisenbarth.

This year the speech team doubled in size, not only in contestants but also in coaches. Mrs. Hood has rededicated herself to assisting Mrs. Dwire with the speech team.

This year was very successful for the speech team. At Conference, team members received medals in the following categories; silver, Georgia Clem for after-dinner speaking, and Isaiah Jacobson for prose. Bronze medals were received by Karen Eisenbarth for after-dinner speaking, and Dale Weydert for radio.

The team had 13 entries for state competition. Division II ratings were awarded to Justin Collins, Dan Wallace, Dale Weydert. Division I ratings were given to Karen Eisenbarth, Amy Mogler, Georgia Clem, Isaiah Jacobson, Sarah Graaf, and Jill Newton.

Isaiah Jacobson took the speech team to UNI on April 6th for All-State.

Renaissance

The Renaissance organization is in its second successful year with Mrs. Gruber as its faithful leader. They hosted a pancake supper on October 31, to raise money for the programs they wanted to incorporate.

The Renaissance committee kept several of last years programs: such as trying to improve attendance, and the senior semester test policy.

They also introduced new programs including improving ITED scores was one of the new programs. Student of the Month was the group's big project. The honor was divided into four categories: athletics, academics, citizenship, and activities.

A male and female student was chosen for each category through a nomination and selection process involving the high school teachers.

Solo and Small Group Ensembles: Dana Jergens, Rachel Myers, and Pam Frederiksen

The Twin River Valley Band started out the new school year with a new band director. Julie Payne joined the band for her first year of teaching.

Two members of the Twin River Valley Band, Dana Jergens and Pam Frederiksen were selected to Iowa State Honor Band held February 6 and 7, 1998. These two were also chosen to attend the North Star Conference Honor Band held February 11, 1998, at Alden. Pam was also chosen to the North Central Iowa Bandmasters Association Honor Band.

Small group participants this year were Dana Jergens, Rachel Myers, and Pam Frederiksen. Dana, playing trumpet, and Pam, playing french horn, performed a duet and received a division one rating. Pam, playing the french horn, and Rachel, playing the drums, each performed a solo earning division ones. Dana performed a trumpet solo and received a division two rating.

On May 9 the entire band traveled to Emmetsburg for the State Large Group Festival. There the band received a division three rating.

National Honor Society

The 1997-1998 school year brought new faces and challenges to Twin River Valley's National Honor Society.

This year's squad donated their time recycling the school's paper. They also held bake sales in order to increase their funds. The group also sold window cling-on's to the community. Additionally, the hosted hat days for students and dress-down days for faculty and staff members.

Two new members were inducted into National Honor Society during Honors Night which was held Wednesday, May 13. Those inducted were Sharon Hefty, a junior, and Dana Jergens, a sophomore. Several students were nominated for induction, but only two outlasted the selection process, which involves several criteria.

First row: Kristen Koob, Angie Hefty. Second row: Jenny Hefty, Jill Welter, Christine Graaf. Third row: Amy Mogler, Paul Dailey, Karen Eisenbarth.

Quiz Bowl

The Quiz Bowl team was rejuvenated by some new blood this year. "We were a strong bunch this year," commented Mr. Stegge, the group's advisor. "Even when we were missing some kids, we still had enough for two teams at all of the meets."

The group participated in three quiz bowl competitions this year: Algona High on October 18, West Bend on November 8, and Bishop Garrigan in Algona on November 15.

School to Work

The School to Work program is now in its third year. This program gives the students a chance to go out into the work field and see if they are cut out for that job.

Students are required to take certain classes to qualify for the program. Next, they must be interviewed by Mrs. Bollmeyer to see if they are good candidates, and the students' attendance records are evaluated. If selected, Mrs. Bollmeyer arranges work sights for the students.

This year, Aaron Crahan participated in the program and worked at Rural Iowa Electric in Humboldt.

McKimmey named new head coach; Thunder team is conference runner-up

This year, the Thunder baseball team started their season with a new head coach - Travis McKimmey. He was assisted by Leon Johnson.

The baseball team consisted of 19 players with including six returning letterwinners. Their record was 5-3 in the conference and 9-15 overall. They were consequently named North Star Conference runners-up for the 1997 season.

McKimmey said, "I didn't know what to expect as a first-year coach, and I asked the players for commitment and total effort. They set their goal at a .500 record and to finish in the upper half of our conference. This first season was a success, and we're looking forward to next season."

Post-season honors were awarded to Dallas Clark, first team all-conference and all-state honorable mention; Shane McKimmey, second team all-conference; Ryan Fredin, conference honorable mention; Phil Jensen, conference honorable mention.

Netters Reach New Heights

The 1997 Twin River Valley volleyball team worked hard from the first day of practice.

The new season brought forth many changes. The first was the hiring of new coach, Dianna Weydert. She commented, "I am excited about the year because I have a hardworking team with good attitudes."

The volleyball squad was anchored by seniors Kara Dickey, Laura Edwards, Karen Eisenbarth, and Jessie Scott. The team's overall record was 7-13.

The season's highlight came on October 18, at the Twin River Valley Tournament. The team received top honors for the first time since the tournament was created. Jessie Scott and Karen Eisenbarth were named honorable mention in the North Star Conference.

Looking forward to next year, Weydert replied, "I have seen a lot of improvement since the first day of practice, and I hope to continue that."

Boys Basketball

The Twin River Valley boys' basketball team had a very successful year this season. The team finished up with an overall record of 11-9 and a North Star Conference record of 5-5

"The season started out like a lion and seemed to finish like a lamb," said head coach Leon Johnson. The team began the season playing aggressively, but not did not end the year that way.

North Star all-conference honors were received by Dallas Clark, first team; and Phil Jensen, second team. Jay Lynch, and Dale Black received honorable mention.

Girls Basketball

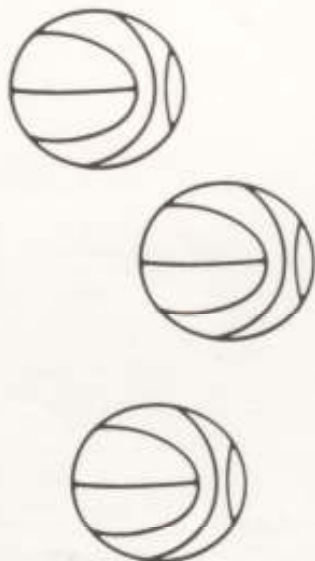

The Twin River Valley girls basketball team started its season with new head coach Dan Bennett. "This year the girls are going to do things differently and try to beat their record from last year which was 4-15," commented Assistant Coach Burger.

The TRV girls basketball team had 13 members out including six freshman, three sophomores, and four juniors. According to Assistant Coach Burger, there were several underclassmen who took over the job of providing leadership.

The Thunder girls basketball team had an overall record of 6-13, and a conference record of 3-5. Junior Casey Hofer was named second team all-conference, while Jenny Hefty and Sarah Tofteberg received honorable mention.

1998 Mexico Trip

On April 9, 1998, 42 tired but excited students and chaperones rode a bus to Des Moines, then boarded the plane that would eventually take them to Mexico.

During this seven day field trip, 29 Spanish class students, Mrs. Gruber, and two parents visited Mexico City for three days, Taxco for one day, and Acapulco for three days.

On the first day in Mexico City, the travelers stayed in the Gran Hotel, which was located in downtown Mexico City. Here students visited a very large bakery, the zoo, Aztec pyramids, and several churches. The activity students seemed to enjoy the most was bargaining with the vendors in the square across the street. This was quite a shopping experience for them. At the time of the trip, the exchange rate was eight pesos for a dollar.

The next site they visited was Taxco, which was approximately two hours from Mexico City. Taxco is a silver town located in the mountains. This meant that everyone had a chance to buy silver at a very reasonable price.

On the fifth day of the excursion, the students rode by bus to their final destination, Acapulco. This is where they did most of their relaxing. Activities were jet skiing, parasailing, or riding on a banana boat. The group also went to see the cliff divers. However, the most popular activity was just catching some rays by the pool.

Shining our Way Through it All

The squad participated in the State Drill Team Competition on December 6, 1997, at Veterans Memorial Auditorium. They were awarded first place trophies in the small school hoopla and lights divisions. For the tenth year in a row, the Distinguished Academic Award was received.

The squad was once again invited to the Boys State Basketball tournament. They ended their season with the eleventh annual Drill Team Night.

What has changed the most since you started teaching? The use and availability of technology for instruction; and, in many cases, less parental support and involvement in their children's education.

What have you enjoyed the most about teaching? I've enjoyed seeing the children excited about learning and discovery, especially in the area of science.

What are your plans for retirement? I plan to spend some time woodworking, travel some of the time, do more fishing and some volunteer work.

May you always have the ambition to reach the goals
you've set,

May you always learn and grow so you can see each goal
well met,

May you always have good friendships to support you day
to day,

May you always have a dream to light your steps along life's way,

May this great adventure we call "life" fulfill your expectations and your dreams.
